GETTING RID OF SPIRITS.

When spiritualism first made its appearance in the village of N—, old Deacon Isaacs, a wealthy man who had stood by the church for nearly three score years, was exceedingly bitter against all believers in the "devils works" as he called it, and denounced spiritualists and spiritualism in no very gentle language. Imagine the deacon's anger, then, when, six months afterwards it had worked its way into his own family, and not only were his wife and daughters believers in it, but one of them was a medium, and possessed full powers to converse with the spirits of those who had departed to that "bourne whence no traveller returns."

Deacon Isaacs was mad—dreadfully mad—but he had wit enough not to show it, and he bore the taunts of the ungodly with a meek spirit. He knew that it would be useless to declare open war, for Mrs. Isaacs alone had always proved more than a match for him, and he was sure to be defeated. He must "circumvent the critter," as he expressed it, and to this end he set himself to work. He was of sound judgment, and his worldly experience of fifty years was not thrown away.

From the day it first came to his knowledge that his wife and daughters were spiritualists, he never spoke a word against, nor did he ever allude to it except in general terms in his morning prayers, but any one could see that it troubled him, for he was absent minded, his eyes wandered restlessly, and his countenance looked careworn.

The deacon witnessed one or two sittings at his house and was satisfied that if he possessed a little more knowledge he could get rid of them. So one morning he went to the city, determined to thoroughly investigate the subject before he returned. After visiting two of the most popular mediums, and paying his money, he returned home satisfied that he could see through it.

There was a "sitting" at the deacon's house on the night that he returned, and his daughter Mary—the medium—invited the deacon to take a seat at the table, which to her gratification was accepted. The spirits were in good tune and so exceedingly communicative that the deacon was induced to ask a few questions which were readily answered and wife and daughters were in ecstacies at the thought that father would yet be a believer, and urged the deacon on in his inquiries.

"Has my wife always been true to her marriage vows?" asked the deacon.

To this question there were no raps in return, while Mrs. Isaacs stood transfixed with holy horror that such a thought should enter her husband's mind.

"How many years has it been since she was untrue?"

Answer by single raps. They came slowly and solemnly, one, two, three, four, and so on until they reached twenty.

"How many who claim to be, are not my children?"

Again the spirit rapped—one, two.

Mrs. Isaacs looked dumbfounded.

"Mercy!" said Mary.

"Which are they?" asked the deacon, who now seemed so intent on his subject that he paid no attention to his companions.

"Mary—Sarah," rapped the spirits, the names of the two daughters, the older of whom was under twenty.

Mrs. Isaacs could stand it no longer.

"It's a lie! I didn't! they are your children, Deacon Isaacs, and God knows it! she shrieked, rising from the table.

"But the spirits affirm differently," said the deacon in a solemn voice.

"Then they lie!" said the wife.

"But if you believe them in everything else, why not in this?"

"But I don't believe them at all; it is all foolery."

"Nor I," shouted Mary.

"Nor I," added Sarah.

"Then," said the deacon with a smile, "we will bid them good bye, and leave those things which God has wisely hid from us, to be revealed in His time.

The deacon's evening devotions were characterized with more earnestness than usual and the family retired to bed fully satisfied that the spirits did not always reveal the truth.

Mrs. Isaacs was glad that none of the neighbors were present; but somehow the story got out, and so fearful were the spirit dames of N—, that they might be caught in the same trap which the deacon had set, that spiritualism and its concomitant evils were driven entirely from the village.

SOLILOQUY OF A SOUTHERNER.

BY "BRICK" POMEROY.

Don gon my buttons if us folks down here don't amount to a little bit of melody after all. We were buta handful of cowards before the war killed off half of us; yet the great big North is afraid to have us in the Union! We uns helped to make the Constitution and helped make our common country great, and when we saw danger of our rights under the Constitution being ignored after we were educated by Abolitionists to believe we had the right to secede, and to save ourselves did secede, dog gon us if these same men who wanted us out didn't want us back again! They said we were a bill of expense to the Union—that it cost more to furnish us mails, revenue officers, &c., &c., than it came to, and when we wished to relieve the liberal North of this taxation on our account, dog gon us but they incurred more expense to keep us in than we were worth while we were in. And they didn't want us to work niggers, yet were willing to sell them to us, and to buy all the niggers raised, and pay us in gimcracks for the same. They drove us out of the Union. They said we had better go out. We took them at their word, for such good christians as populate the North must be honest, and they sent armies here to drive us back. They said we'd a right to secede, and advised us to do so. We took the North at their word. Then they said we could not secede.

And they sent soldiers and thieves among us. While brave men fought us, thieves stole from us the things we bought of them, and now insist on selling them over. We could stand their fighting, but dog gon 'em, not their stealing! When we sent our wounded home, we found our homes were burned, or our goods stolen. They destroyed or sold all we had, then blamed us for not caring for their wounded. They carried on war against us to drive us back into the Union. And when we were driven back, they discovered that we were out of the Union.

They wanted us to send members to Congress, and they sent them back home. They say the war was a brilliant success. They say fighting, alone, can restore the Union, and still, when the fighting is over with, say war divided the Union. We have been subjugated, repudiated, dispossessed, disfranchised, contrabanded, reconstructed and desolated.

We have quit fighting, yet are warred upon. We want peace, yet are promised war. We want to be in the Union, yet we are told we shall not come in. They call us infidels, yet forget christianity themselves.

If we are now without money, influence, power or prestige, why is the North afraid of us? If we are expected to be good citizens why do not the radicals of the North set the example? If we are not in the Union, why taxed by that Union? If we are not in the Union, where are we? If this is our reward for disbanding our serried ranks, what was the use of disbanding? Why not keep on fighting? If we are not conquered, why not go on with war, renew the murderous crusade for cotton, mules, niggers, jewelry and furniture? The men who fought us like brave men now say that fair play shall be the order of the day. The cowards, thieves and plunderers who robbed, desolated and desecrated us, now are anxious for another war upon us, so the balance of what we have may be stolen of us, and their pockets still further filled, and we are blamed for not laughing at our own funerals. We are asked to sing melodies while sitting on bayonets! We are asked to dance while the slow match is burning still brighter in our cellars. We are asked to sit still and be insulted by the men who stole from us—who insulted our women—who stole while others fought. We are asked to be good citizens, when we are treated like bad citizens. We are asked to believe others who will not believe us even in tears. We are asked to grow flowers in the face of wintry blasts yet piping from the North, and to deck our graveyards with flowers while dogs are barking at our heels. The North claims the religion of the country, yet it jabs and stabs us with puritanical hate.

All we want is peace. We wish to repair the damages the war has made. We wish to live as brothers of a common heritage, yet we are treated like servants. As one of the Southerners I try to bear all this—I try to smile—I try to dance while our conquerers are fiddleing in drunken glee—I am earnest in asking for the peace which was promised us, if we disbanded our armies—I keep faith with the North, yet the North will not keep faith with us. And I tell you, if we can't have the peace and rights promised us, life is a burden and we had better lose it at once. But I will wait awhile—for surely the sense of national honor has not quite died out in the North. There is a better day coming—another year will tell the story.

ANTICIPATING the result of the October elections, the Richmond Whig says:

"The South does not crave political power. All she wants is protection against menaced oppression. While she should not and does not intrude herself upon the arena of politics and enter into party contests, her good feelings are with that party which offers her the most liberal terms."

MASSACRE OF THE INNOCENTS.

A subject of deep interest is now being discussed in the Academy of Medicine in Paris—namely, the frightful mortality among French children according to the fashion of that country put out to nurse. Every year twenty thousand babies are sent out of Paris under the care of peasant nurses and of that number 5,000 on an average are returned to their mothers, the other 15,000 having died of cold starvation, and bad treatment. Since 1846 it has been calculated that in the neighborhood of Paris alone 30,000 of these nurslings have died in the hands of their foster mothers. A frightful trade is also carried on by speculators of the lowest class, denominated meneurs, who enrol country women in their pay convey them to Paris in carts justly called "purgatories" obtain for them babies whose mothers have applied to the offices for a nurse for their child, and convey them and the children back to the country.

The horrors that take place during the journey to Paris and back in the vehicle of the meneur are of so startling a nature that one could hardly believe them to be true were it not for the undoubted proofs which have been laid before the Academy of Medicine. Thus the country women make no scruple in exchanging the babies entrusted to them, and several among them undertake to nurse two or three children at a time. "I have seen," exclaimed M. Chevalier, addressing the Academy, "one woman professing to nurse seven infants, and yet she herself had neither milk nor a cow." Fed with bad broth, exposed to every species of dirt and neglect the miserable infant sickens and dies. The nurse, however writes to its mother that her baby is prospering, that it has grown out of its clothes, and required a fresh supply.

The mother naturally spends her month's wages in supplying her child's wants, and goes on paying its board for months after it had been laying in the village cemetery. A considerable number of nurses come annually to Paris, and carry back a supply of children, and not one has ever been known to bring a child back to the capital. In their charge the children simply appear and disappear.

A TRUE WIFE.

She is not a true wife who sustains not her husband in the day of calamity; who is not, when the world's great frown makes the heart chill with anguish, his guardian angel, growing brighter and more beautiful as misfortunes crowd upon his path. Then is the time for the trial of her gentleness, then is the time for testing whether the sweet of her temper beams with a transient light, or the steady glow of the morning star, shines just as brightly under the clouds. Has she then smiles just as charming? Does she try by happy little inventions to lift from his sensitive spirit the burden of thought; There are wives who, when dark hours come, spend their time in repining and upbraiding—thus adding to outside anxiety the harrowing scenes of domestic strife as if all the blame in the world makes one's hair white or black, or changes the decree gone immutably forth. Such know that our darkness is heaven's light; our trials but steps in the golden ladder, by which, if we rightly ascend, we may at last gain that eternal light, and pass forever in its fulness and beauty.

"Is that all?" and the gentle face of the wife beamed with joy. Her husband had been on the verge of distraction—all his earthly possessions were gone, and he feared the result of her knowledge, she had been so carefully cared for all her life. "But," says Irving's beautiful story, "a friend advised him not to give sleep to his eyes, nor slumber to his eyelids until he had unfolded to her his hopeless cause." And that was the answer with the smile of an angel—"Is that all?" "I feared by your sadness that it was worse. Let these beautiful things be taken—all this splendor let it go, I care not for it—I only care for my dear husband's love and confidence. You shall forget in my affection that you were ever in prosperity—only still love me and I will aid you to bear these little reverses with cheerfulness."

Still love her! A man must reverence, aye liken her unto the very angels, for such a woman is a living revelation of Heaven.

VOTING UNDER DIFFICULTIES.—we learn that in Wabash Township, Ohio, the vote usually stands sixty-four Democrats to six Republicans. As that township was well inundated, only fifty Democrats voted and only two Republicans on Tuesday. Under what difficulties these Democrats voted, few who did not experience the trial can properly understand; but these fifty Democrats deserve to be crowned with laurels for their pluck. They traveled to the polls in skiffs partly, walked on dry land only a portion of the way, and waded the balance! One old gentleman and his son, starting from home at 7 o'clock in the morning, did not reach the place of voting till 3 o'clock. During a portion of the way they waded through water up to their armpits! Many of the Democrats traveled in skiffs till they would reach dry land, when they would carry their skiffs over to the next bed of water, and so on till they reached the polls. Surely such Democrats are never conquered. Three times three cheers for Democrats who have pluck enough to wade to the polls.—Evansville Courier.

PROFITABLE PRAYING.—An English newspaper says: A young lady was put into a train alone to go to London. As the train was on the point of starting a gentleman rushed up and got in. At this her friends, who were seeing her off, were rather annoyed, but thought it did not much signify. Shortly after the train had started, the gentleman jumped up and ex claimed, "This carriage is too heavy, it must be lightened," and straightway his carpet bag disappeared out of the window. He sits still a few minutes, when he begins again, and this time his coat and waistcoat follow his bag. After a little while he said, "Let us pray for the Duke of Gloucester" Down they go on their knees, the poor girl, only 17, too frightened to do anything but obey. When that was done they prayed for the Duke of York, and then for another—in fact, through a whole string of dukes; they then sit down, the young lady frightened out of her senses. After a few minutes he begins again: "It wont do; I cant stand it; the train is too heavy; either you or I must get out; I don't want to, so you must go." The girl, in despair, says, "But we have not prayed for the Duke of Northumberland." "Ah! no more we have." Down they go agin on their knees, when luckily the train stopped at a station, and the young lady called the guard, when it was discovered that the gentleman was a lunatic escaped from Hanwell.

EVERYBODY who visited the White Mountains a dozen years ago, going from Portland by the old White Mountain stage line, will remember John Smith, the driver. He was a man of moods, and frequently was the very opposite of courteous to his passengers. One day, his downward trip, he had as an outside passenger a very loquacious party, who, despite many rebuffs, persevered in attempting to make John talk. At last, in response to one of the gentleman's inquiries, John roughly answered, "You attend to your business and I'll attend to mine." This was effectual, and Loquax shut up. The stage rolled on, stopped at Standish a few minutes to leave the mail, and went on. When a point some six or eight miles beyond that pleasant village was reached, John looked under his seat and saw that the mail bag was missing. "There," said he, with much vehemence, "Iv'e left that mail!" "Yes," responded the outside passenger, "I knew you did." "Well, why the d—l didn't you tell me of it?" inquired the irate John. "Why, you requested me not long ago to mind my business and you'd mind yours, and I thought I'd let you, but you don't seem to have done it," was the answer. John gathered up his reins, turned his horses' heads the other way, and drove rapidly back to Standish for the missing mail.

"A BACHELOR" has addressed a letter to the editor of the Boudoir, complaining of the extravagant habits of the "young ladies" of this generation, on which the editor sensibly remarks: "From the account which this bachelor gives of himself, it appears that he is in exceedingly moderate circumstances in life; and we judge from his letter that he has fallen into a very common error of his sex in these days, of indulging in matrimonial aspirations far above his own position. He sees brilliantly dressed, richly adorned young ladies who belong to families of wealth, or at least possessed of a good income; and it is evidently the hand of one of these to which he would like to lay claim. Because it is not in his power to meet the outlay required for the support of this style, he falls to whining and raising about the pecuniary obstacles to his wedlock. He does not seem to be aware that these ladies will be very apt to obtain matrimonial partners both able and proud to sustain what he considers their "extravagance;" and that what would be a burden or an impossibility for him to support, might be but a pleasure for another to uphold. Let this bachelor "on thirteen hundred dollars a year" not aim at the daughters of fortune, or strive to make alliances beyond his own humble sphere. Let him earnestly seek for and be satisfied with a good stout damsel on his own social level, and, our word for it, he will not need to remain a bachelor another thirty years."

AN "HONEST AGENT."—A few days since, says the Richmond Dispatch, a citizen of Richmond, having occasion to visit Surrey county, met with an old slave in a very destitute condition and almost naked. The negro told him that he had been working for an agent of the Freedmen's Bureau, at four dollars per month and his food. He only received three dollars per month, and no rations. His former master went with him to the man and asked him if he was an agent of the Bureau. The fellow very insolently replied:

"Is that any of your d—n business?"

The gentleman replied:

"It is, sir. This man was once my slave. I have always treated him well, and don't intend that he shall be imposed upon now."

He then produced the negro's labor contract, drawn up in legal form, and made the man pay the negro what was due him—about seventy dollars.

When he returned to Richmond he made complaint of the affair to the authorities, and the agent has since been discharged.

TO SUBSCRIBERS IN ARREARS.

Those persons who have not paid their subscription to THE GAZETTE for the year commencing January 1, '65, and for the present year commencing January 1, '66, can get a receipt for both years by paying $4.50 at or before next November Court. If not paid by that time, our terms (which will be found at the head of the first column,) will be strictly adhered to. It will be noticed that the above yellow slip of paper upon which the subscriber's name is printed, is dated and indicates the time to which his paper is paid with the present form. We hope that all delinquents will at once remit the amount due us.

MEYERS & MENGEL.

CAN'T COOK.—It is a sad defect when young ladies are incapable of directing their own servants—shoes without soles, or wristbands without a shirt are not more useless than one of these. One day shortly after his marriage, a young merchant went home, and seeing no dinner ready, and his wife appearing anxious and confused, asked:

"What is the matter?"

"Why, Nancy went off at ten o'clock this morning," replied his wife, "and the chambermaid knows no more about cooking dinner than a man in the moon."

"Couldn't she have done it under your direction?" inquired the husband very coolly.

"Under my direction? I should like to see a dinner cooked under my direction."

"Why so?" asked the husband in surprise.

"You certainly do not think I could," replied the wife; "how should I know anything about cooking?"

The husband was silent, but his look of astonishment perplexed and worried his wife.

"You look very much surprised," she said, after a moment or two had elapsed.

"And so I am," answered he, "as much surprised as I should be to find the captain of one of my ships unacquainted with navigation. You don't know how to cook, and the mistress of a family! Jane, if there is a cooking school any where in the city, go to it, and complete your education, for it is deficient in a very important particular.—Rural American.

A FRENCH journal tells a little story about a lady: "When I was first married I was on my knees before my husband from morning till night. It was a perfect adoration and incessant delirium—an inexpressible bliss. I showered caresses upon him; I could have eaten him." "And now," asked a friend. "I'm sorry I didn't."

GOOD ADVICE.—Mr Peabody recently addressed the school children of the Peabody Institute at South Denvers, Mass., closing his remarks in the following beautiful words:

"At my advanced age I cannot expect to meet you again collectively, and it is to me a saddening thought, for though since I addressed your predecessors at the time I have mentioned, I have met many assemblies of children and to some I have spoken—founded on a long experience—words of simple advice and caution, yet, in none on either side of the Atlantic, can I feel so deep an interest as in the children of the schools of South Denvers. They seem intimately associated with the thoughts of my childhood and early youth; they take the same lessons, they occupy my playgrounds and their feet tread the same paths over which I once trudged to school. With such feelings, therefore I earnestly exhort you, my dear young friends, to strive by your present advantages to prepare yourselves for a life of usefulness in the responsible positions which you are to fill; to honor, and if necessary protect and support your parents; to never depart from the path of honor and integrity, and, above all, "Remember your Creator in the days of your youth, and when you are old he will not forsake you." Farewell, Farewell.

THE IDLER.—The idle man is an annoyance a nuisance. He is of no benefit to nobody. He is an intruder in the busy thoroughfare of every day life. He stands in our path, and we push him contemptously aside! He is of no advantage to any body. He annoys busy men. He makes them unhappy. He is a cipher in society. He may have an income to support him in idleness, or he may "sponge" on his good natured friends. But in either case he is despised. Young man do something in this busy, bustling, wide-awake world! Move about for the benefit of mankind, if not for yourself. Do not be idle. God's law is, that by the sweat of our brow we shall earn our bread. That law is a good one, and the bread we earn is sweet. Do not be idle. Minutes are too precious to be squandered thoughtlessly. Every man and every woman, however exalted or however humble, can do good in this short life, if so inclined; therefore do not be idle.

TWO OF 'EM.—A young fellow whose better half had just presented him with a pair of bouncing twins, attended church one Sunday. During the discourse, the clergyman looked right at our innocent friend and said, in a tone of thrilling eloquence, "Young man you have an important responsibility thrust upon you." The newly fledged dad, supposing the preacher alluded to his peculiar home event, considerably startled the audience by exclaiming, "Yes, I have two of 'em."

MONTESQUIEU was discussing a question with a counsellor of the Parliament of Bordeaux, who was witty but rather hot-headed. The latter concluding some fiery remarks, said: "Mr. President, if this is not as I tell you, I will give you my head." "I accept it," replied Montesquieu, coolly. "Small presents keep up friendship."

PRIDE.—The chief and common companion of pride is ignorance. Our pride feeds itself by dwelling upon the possession of some ornament which we believe to be extraordinarily brilliant. But did we see the precious jewels which adorn many others in like circumstances, we should meekly set ourselves to increase our store of grace.

MARYLAND.

The cloud of war in Maryland grows darker and more threatening. The evidence against the Police Commissioners fixes upon them a most damning record and will startle the whole country by the villainies it brings to light. The Commissioners, it appears, selected as their subordinates the most disreputable and desperate characters that could be raked from the dens of a great city, men who had no reputation to lose, and who were steeped in crime and would be mere tools in the hands of their masters, the Radicals, to carry out the basest partisan purposes.—Among the Judges, Inspectors and Clerks of election were scoundrels of every shade. Pimps, Bummers, Bawdy-house keepers, Thieves and Murderers were made guardians of the ballot-box, the most sacred of all trusts in a Republic.

With the police of the city and the election boards thus organized the Radicals had plain sailing. The police arrested and filled the lock-ups with conservative voters and the Commissioners issued an order that they should not be released until after the polls closed. Thousands of men who have lived and voted in Baltimore all their lives were refused a vote because they favored the policy of the President, and thousands of New England Yankees and New York rowdies were allowed to vote for no other reason than that they were Radicals. The election officers were obedient to their masters. The radical leaders had only to nod or wink through the window and a vote was taken or rejected, according to the politics of the voter. By means like these and by others equally barefaced and diabolical the Radicals carried the Municipal election in Baltimore, although the conservatives outnumber them two to one.

Governor Swan after full investigation and proof of the facts has removed the old Commissioners and appointed others in their place. The old Commissioners at last accounts, refused to yield up their authority or surrender the police property. If they persist in their course a collision seems almost inevitable. We believe that Governor Swan will enforce the laws at every hazard. He is not the man we take him to be if he permits a revolutionary faction at home or Radical fanatics abroad to turn him from his duty. If the collison comes it may be of the most sanguinary character. The first blow in Baltimore may kindle a blaze of civil war throughout the country. Upon the heads of the lawless men who provoked the conflict be the consequences.

—Since the above has been in type, we have received further news from Baltimore. The Police Commissioner difficulty has been compromised. The new Commissioners appointed by the Governor, having been imprisoned on a writ issued by Judge Bond, are to be unconditionally released on this (Tuesday) morning. The question of title is to be tried in the Courts. The old Judges of Election are to be removed and new ones appointed by mutual agreement of both parties, the Judges to possess, each, a property qualification of $10,000. It is thought that this will secure a fair vote of the people. We doubt it, however.

FACILIS DESCENSUS AVERNI.

The first three words ("The daughter of") of the telegram announcing the death of Secretary Seward's daughter were lost by the operator here, in taking off the dispatch. This made it an unequivocal announcement of the death of the Secretary of State, and for several hours our community believed he was dead. Of course the news saddened the hearts of conservatives, and of decent people of all parties, but some of the Radicals were evidently delighted. One of them—a leader—openly declared that he was glad the old political renegade was out of the way. This brutal remark comes with peculiar bad grace, when it is remembered that it came from one who only a short time ago was a 'copperhead' and is now wearing the bib-and-tucker of his Republican baby-hood. Truly, Facilis Descensus Averni.

THE Somerset Herald & Whig is very facetious on the subject of bribing voters. Its editor thinks Democrats must be a very corrupt sort of people, if, as we alleged, Gen. Geary's election was secured by money. This kind of logic will not do, Mr. Scull. There are voters enough of the purchaseable kind, in this State, to give the majority to either party. You know this as well as you know anything. It is a melancholy fact, but it is, nevertheless, a fact. These corrupt men belong to no party. They are in the market and on election-day become the property of the highest bidder. But money was used by your party, in the late election, not only in the purchase of votes, but to pay the expenses of colonizing voters from other States and from strong into weak Congressional districts. Your friend, John Covode, can tell you all about that little game, Mr. Scull. Do you deny that your party used money to carry the election? If you do, then we answer that we will put up a wager of fifty dollars that your candidates for Congress and Senator both sent large sums into this county, and if they will step into the witness-box and be sworn, we will rest our case upon their own testimony. What do you say to this, neighbor Scull? Come, walk up to the scratch! In conclusion, if all voters are so immaculate in your estimation, especially all who vote the "Radical" ticket, how do you account for that singular admiration of President Johnson's policy, which distinguished the columns of the Herald & Whig from other "Republican" papers, whilst Edward Scull was Collector of Internal Revenue, and how do you explain the opposition to that same policy manifested in that same journal, since Edward Scull is no longer Collector as aforesaid?

THE New York Tribune has already abandoned the proposed Constitutional Amendment and now declares that the Southern States must be reconstructed upon the basis of "Universal Suffrage and Universal Amnesty." That is, the people of the South, Jeff. Davis, rebel soldiers and all, are to be re-instated in full citizenship, if the freed negroes be given the right to vote. This is nothing more nor less than a bribe offered the Southern people to induce them to adopt Negro Suffrage. It is accompanied by the threat that if they refuse to accept this bribe, they will be punished by exclusion from representation in Congress, for an indefinite period. The Constitutional Amendment was evidently only a snare to catch such voters as would not face squarely the question of Negro Suffrage. The next session of Congress will, doubtless, develop fully the insincerity of the Radical Disunionists in putting before the country the proposed Constitutional Amendment as the basis upon which they are willing to "readmit the Southern States into the Union. Stevens, Kelley, Sumner, Butler and others will repudiate the Amendment and insist upon Universal Suffrage. Then will come the tug of war between the moderate and ultra factions of the Radical party. There are breakers ahead, depend upon it!

WAR.

We want no more of the scourge of war. Quite enough of blood has been spilled and treasure wasted. The country needs peace, that the people, by settling down to their old callings and pursuits, may restore material prosperity and happiness. Humanity shrinks from the shedding of fraternal blood, and the great majority of the American people, true to its instincts, desire peace and fraternal feeling.

The Radical leaders, however, want more blood. Jackal and hyena-like the taste they have had only whets their appetite for more. Blood! blood! Beast Butler and Forney, and the lesser animals of the pack throughout the country yelp in their feeble way, blood!

THE ELECTIONS ON TUESDAY.

We are informed by telegraph, this (Wednesday) morning, that Democratic victories have been achieved in Maryland and Delaware, and that all the other States which voted yesterday, including New York, Illinois and Missouri, have gone Radical, New Jersey, probably, also, by a small majority. There is little doubt, however, that the Democrats have gained a number of members of Congress. In Maryland we gain a United States Senator in place of Creswell, Radical. New York city gives 30,000 Democratic majority. Horace Greeley is defeated for Congress and James Brooks, who was cheated out of his seat last winter, is re-elected.

SUITS have been instituted against several election officers for refusing to take the votes of alleged deserters, and the validity of the infamous law attempting to disfranchise citizens without a trial, will be thoroughly tested.

GOV. SWANN, of Maryland, on the first inst., removed the Police Commissioners of Baltimore, who had appointed (as was proved in the investigation before the Governor) thieves, bawdy-house keepers, and murderers as Judges of Election. The gentlemen appointed in their stead, were duly qualified, according to law, but when they called upon the ousted Commissioners to take possession of the office to which they had been appointed, they were resisted and upon the oath of some political opponents, were carried before a partisan Judge and by him thrown into prison. At the present writing this infamous outrage remains uncorrected, and the vile scoundrels who were appointed judges of the dearest rights of three-fourths of the voters of Baltimore, are still permitted to hold their places. Thus have the Radicals resisted the law and set at defiance the authority of the Executive of the State of Maryland. Thus has revolution been inaugurated by these political desperadoes and thus has been added another chapter of shame to the history of the unfortunate city of Baltimore. Who would belong to this party of Radical Rebels?

Talk about the "ignorance of slavery," after that, oh! ye meddlesome hypocrites of New England. Go back to your kennels, dogs, and cease your howling. White Slavery in New England cries out against your boasted liberalism. White children, from the gloom and darkness of factory serf-dom, pine for the light of education. Go back and reform your own short-comings and you will have enough to do.

The Baltimore Police Embroglio

GREAT EXCITEMENT.

The New Police Commissioners Make a Demand on the old Commissioners for the Surrender of the Station Houses, and are Refused—Bench Warrant Issued by a "Ping Ugly" Judge for the Arrest of the New Officers—He Holds them in $25,000 to Keep the Peace—They Refuse to give Bail and are Committed to Prison—Arrival of Troops, &c., &c.

BALTIMORE, Nov 3.

This has been a day of intense excitement in Baltimore, exceeding that of the 19th of April. Early this morning it was currently reported that the Sheriff was gathering a posse to aid the new Commissioners in obtaining possession of the Station Houses, where a large number of the old police force were stationed. The streets were filled with anxious and excited people, and large crowds were gathered around and in the vicinity of the Marshal's office, and everything indicated a popular outbreak.

Messrs. Valiant and Young the newly appointed Police Commissioners, went, at ten o'clock this morning, to the office of the old Board to demand the books, papers, and possession of office, but were refused admittance at the door. There was an immense crowd in front of the office. All of the police officers and the special police adhered to the old Board, and there was much hurrahing and groaning, &c.

Finally, after a few minutes, the newly appointed Commissioners proceeded to the office of Wm. Schley, their counsel, in Lexington street, followed by a a vast crowd, mostly their political adherents, to ask advice as to their future course. No police were with the crowd, all the force being engaged guarding the station houses and office of the Police Board, and other places.

The people are now greatly excited, and the thoroughfares are filled with anxious crowds. Business is pretty well suspended, and there are significant indications that the military may be called upon before the day ends, which if done, and the old Board persist, they may be arrested, and the city put under martial law.

Gov. Swan is here, and more officers and soldiers are visible than usual.—Things look very squally.

At noon, the new Commissioners, after spending about an hour with their counsel at his office, got into a carriage having a document, understood to be a formal demand for the delivery of the office into their possession.

They took a circuitous route, and after making a detour of about one mile to avoid the crowds, approached the Commissioners' office, where their appearance was the signal for tumultuous demonstrations of disapproval by the now largely increased crowd.

They were again admitted to the enclosure, and at the door of the office were met by the Clerk of the Commissioners, who received their document, telling them that the Commissioners would immediately consider the matter and make their reply in writing.

Messrs. Valiant and Young then drove off to the corner of North and Baltimore streets, to the conservative headquarters, where they were received with loud cheering by the crowd gathered there. It is now understood they are organizing a new force. Quite a number of the old force resigned last night, and reported to Messrs. Young and Valiant this morning.

Gen. Canby is here; but will not call out the troops unless an absolute riot occurs, which has not yet taken place.

It seems that the new Board are determined to persist in their efforts to obtain possession of the station houses, and the old Board seem equally determined to resist them.

Things just now looked very feverish and it was momentarily expected that an outbreak would take place, in which event martial law will be proclaimed.

About noon to-day, six companies of United States regulars (infantry) arrived here from New York, and marched at once to Fort M'Henry.

2 P. M.—The new Commissioners are still in their new office in North street, busily engaged in appointing their new police and other officers. They are also appointing judges of election for next Tuesday. They demanded from the old Board a written statement of what they designed doing, giving two hours for a reply; but no reply has yet been sent, and probably none will be. It is understood that the new Board have determined that the election next Tuesday shall be conducted under their rule at newly selected election precints, whilst the old board are equally determined that said election shall be held under their orders, at the same old precincts, with the same judges; hence if United States troops do not interfere (and they are not much inclined to do so), two separate elections will be held, the radicals voting at one place and the conservatives at another.

2½ P. M.—The Police Commissioners, Young and Valiant, have been arrested by the city authorities, and are before Judge Bond, of the City Criminal Court, on a charge of common disturbers of the public peace. The excitement is very great, but there is no fighting. Sheriff Thompson has also been arrested for illegally swearing in new police Officers.

At the Court House a few of the regular police force appeared in the vestibule, and commenced at once to eject the Sheriff's posse, who were crowding up the stairway from the south entrance to the Sheriff's office above. A scuffle ensued, and for a time there was considerable confusion and much threatening language used. Many of the spectators becoming alarmed, made a hasty exit from the building, causing much excitement outside.

Presently the new commissioners were seen approaching from the north end of the building, in Lexington street. They had scarcely entered, when Marshal Carmichael appeared, coming from the direction of the Central Police Station, at the head of a large body of police, who made a rapid entrance, and in a few minutes cleared the Sheriff's posse out of the building.

On entering the Criminal Court, a Deputy Sheriff appeared, and announced that the bench warrants for the arrest of Valiant and Young had been served, and in a few minutes thereafter the Sheriff appeared with Messrs. Valiant and Young in custody.

The Court informed them that there would be an opportunity afforded them to procure counsel. Presently their counsel appeared, and inquired for the affidavits upon which the arrest had been made.

The State's Attorney briefly recited the evidence that had been given by the witnesses upon whose testimony the bench-warrants for the arrest had been issued.

The counsel for the new commissioners then proceeded to argue that the arrest was an unwarrantable one. Their clients were the duly commissioned Commissioners of Police, and were exercising only their legal authority.

Judge Bond, however, gave his decided order that each of the parties (Valiant and Young) be required to give bail in the sum of $25,000 to keep the peace towards the Board of Police of the city of Baltimore.

Sheriff Thompson was also required to give bail in the same amount. It is understood that all the parties refused to give bail, and it is expected they will be committed.

There are reports that they intend to appeal to General Canby to be released from custody. The new police officers have disappeared from the streets. Some of them have been arrested.

All is quiet, but a deep interest is manifested by the large crowds of people in the streets, eagerly discussing affairs.

The Commissioners and the Sheriff have just been sent to jail.

Some excitement and riotous demonstrations took place in the neighborhood of the newspaper office on the announcement of the result of the proceedings in court, but the police promptly ended the matter by arresting the parties. It is believed that the whole affair will now pass off without any serious breach of the peace.

The Excitement Subsiding.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 3.—The rain this evening has probably prevented a serious riot. Until nightfall the excitement was intense, and there was every appearance of a serious collision. At this hour (midnight) everything is quiet, but public feeling is such that an outbreak may be looked for at any moment. A generous sympathy for Gov. Swann's Commissioners is expressed everywhere.

The State of Affairs on Sunday.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 4—Sunday Noon. The counsel for Gov. Swann's newly-appointed Commissioners have made application to Judge Bartol, of the Court of Appeals, for a writ of habeas corpus to bring before him the parties now held in custody by the Warden of the City Jail, under the order of Judge Bond, of the Criminal Court.

It is rumored, probably with truth, that Gov. Swann went to Washington to-day.

Fresh Complications.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 4—10 P. M.—The writ of habeas corpus has not yet been served at the jail, but will be to-morrow morning, and the friends of the newly-appointed Commissioners claim that the warden will have to make his return immediately. It is currently reported that there will be a new set of judges of election announced to-morrow as appointed by the new Commissioners. The registers of voters, it is also reported, have determined to return their lists only to the judges who shall be appointed by Gov. Swann's Commissioners. If this be so, there will be fresh complications. There is no doubt that the Police Board will arrest all persons assuming to act in any capacity as by the authority of the regularly appointed Commissioners.

All Radical revolutionists in Baltimore and a large importation from other States, it is said, have been armed and put on as policemen by the old board. The Radicals are now fully launched in treason against the State, and, unless they rapidly recede, they will soon be in collision with the military forces of the Government.

It is a crying outrage that one-fourth the qualified voters of Baltimore should in defiance of right and law, be allowed to disfranchise the overwhelming majority and riot in treasen unrebuked. Has not Gov. Swann the nerve to do his duty and carry out the laws? We fear not.

SANFORD CONOVER, alias Charles A. Dunham, one of the assasination witnesses, and one of the persons who was implicated in a recent conspiracy to convict Jefferson Davis, by means of subborned witnesses, of being an accomplice in the assassination of President Lincoln, was arrested in New York last week and taken to Washington. He was arrested on the affidavits of William H. Roberts, S. A. Hoare, and L. C. Turner, who charge him with perjury. This is the same fellow with whom Joe Holt corresponded and to whom numerous sums of money were sent to secure witnesses against Davis. The Radical villainy will all come out some time or other—and then the country will open its eyes and wonder.

THE FENIAN TRIALS.—The Fenian trials were resumed yesterdey, and Daniel Whelans was placed in the dock. On application of his counsel, his trial was postponed until December 12th. Mr. McKenzie announced his readiness to proceed with Parrize's case, but the main witnesses not being present, it was postponed until Tuesday next. The Grand Jury then entered court with a true bill against Thomas Cooney, Thomas School, william Dugan, and John O'Connor, all Fenian prisoners. Cooney was then placed in the dock, and pleaded not guilty. His trial was fixed for the 13th inst. School was next put in the dock. He claimed to be an American citizen, and pleaded not guilty. His trial was fixed for the 10th inst. Duggan pleaded the same, and his trial was also fixed for the 10th instant.

BUFFALO, Nov. 5.—Considerably excitement prevailed at Fort Erie last night in expectation of a Fenian raid. The cause of the panic seems to have been the arrival of the United States steamer Michigan, which has come to restore the Fenian arms captured last June, and a Fenian demonstration on Sunday afternoon on the iron works portion of the city, where Senator Morrison and other prominent Fenians made speeches. After the meeting a crowd followed the speakers, and it looked as though some demonstration was to be made.

A person having some gold about him was seized as a british spy, but was rescued before badly used.

The affidavits going to prove the innocence of Rev. Mr. M'Mahon, now under sentence of death in Toronto, have been forwarded to Washington.

—On Saturday, two brothers, residing in New York, named respectively Charles and Daniel Baker, were out shooting in Colchester. Daniel had been reclining on the ground but sprang up just as his younger brother had taken aim at a bird, and getting in front of him received the whole charge of the gun, which was loaded with slugs, which pierced his breast, causing almost instant death. Before he expired he absolved his brother from blame.

—A dreadful accident occurred near Peoria, Ill., on Monday night. A man named George Grazier was filling a kerosene lamp that was lighted, when it exploded, setting fire to the house, which burned down, and burning to death his three youngest children, a babe one year, a girl seven, and a boy nine years old. Himself and his oldest boy were severely, if not fatally burned, and his wife considerably injured. It occurred at midnight.

—A man named Martin Tate, living in Cumberland county, Pa., died on Sunday night, of hydrophobia. He had been bitten by a rabid dog nine weeks ago, and was under a seemingly successful medical treatment when he became unduly excited on Sunday morning at some domestic mishap, took sick immediately after and died in the most terrible agonies.

—An Indiana paper tells of of the recent killing of a rattlesnake with one hundred and ten rattles.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

DR. SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS.—A SUBSTITUTE FOR CALOMEL.—These Pills are composed of various roots, having the power to relax the secretions of the liver as promptly and effectually as blue pill or mercury, and without producing any of those disagreeable or dangerous effects which often follow the use of the latter.

In all bilious disorders these Pills may be used with confidence, as they promote the discharge of vitiated bile, and remove those obstructions from the liver and billiary ducts, which are the cause of bilious affections in general.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills cure Sick Headache, and all disorders of the Liver, indicated by sallow skin, coated tongue, costiveness, drowsiness, and a general feeling of weariness and lassitude, showing that the liver is in a torpid or obstructed condition.

In short, these Pills may be used with advantage in all cases when a purgative or alterative medicine is required.

Please ask for "Dr. Schenck's Mandrake Pills," and observe that the two likenesses of the Doctor are on the Government stamp—one when in the last stage of Consumption, and the other in his present health.

ASTHMA CURED.—Wm. May, of 245 Spring st., New York, writes, Jan'y 1, 1856: I have been afflicted with asthma for upwards of ten years, receiving no benefit from medical men. I was advised by a friend to try one of Allcock's Porous Plasters I said, I had tried several kinds of plasters without any benefit, and supposed they were all alike. My friend gave me one of Allcock's, and urged me to use it I did so, and have now worn them steadily for nine months, and find myself better than I have been for many years.

A HUMBUG.—How often we hear this expression from persons reading advertisements of patent medicines, and in nine cases out of ten they may be right. It is over 19 years since I introduced my medicine, the VENETIAN LINIMENT, to the public. I had no money to advertise it, so I left it for sale with a few druggists and storekeepers through a small section of the country, many taking it with great reluctance; but I told them to let any one have it, and if it did not do all I stated on my pamphlet, no one need pay for it. In some stores two or three bottles were taken on trial by persons present. I was, by many, thought crazy, and that would be the last they would see of me. But I knew my medicine was no humbug. In about two months I began to receive orders for more Liniment, some calling it my valuable Liniment, who had refused to sign a receipt when I left it at their store. Now my sales are millions of bottles yearly, and all for cash. I warrant it superior to any other medicine for the cure of Croup, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Colic, Vomiting, Spasms, and Sea-sickness, as an internal remedy. It is perfectly innocent to take internally (see oath accompanying each bottle) and externally for Chronic Rheumatism, Headache, Mumps, Frosted Feet, Bruises, Sprains, Old Sores, Swellings, Sore Throats, &c. Sold by all the druggists. Depot, 56 Cortlandt street, New York. oct19w7

TO CONSUMPTIVES.—The advertiser, having been restored to health in a few weeks by a very simple remedy, after having suffered for several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease, Consumption—is anxious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the means of cure.

To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used (free of charge), with the directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a sure CURE for CONSUMPTION, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, COUGHS, COLDS, and all Throat and Lung Affections. The only object of the advertiser in sending the Prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he conceives to be invaluable, and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing.

Parties wishing the prescription, FREE, by return mail, will please address

PAY THE PRINTER!

We have just sent a number of bills to persons indebted to us for job work and advertising. This kind of work is always intended to be cash, but we have waited for months on some of it and for years on others. We must have these bills paid. Had we no debts of our own, we might give a hundred years' grace to those who owe us. But we must pay our debts, and, hence, we are compelled to collect from those who are indebted to us. The books of B. F. Meyers are also unsettled and must be closed up. We are driven to sending bills to all, irrespective of persons, and we hope that we will not be compelled to resort to any thing more stringent. But we must have our books squared up, and a word to the wise is sufficient.

GREAT METEORIC SHOWER.—A great meteoric shower is predicted to take place on the night of November 13th or 14th. It will be one of the most stupendous phenomena which it falls to the lot of man to witness. In order that our readers may form some idea of its sublimity, we append a description of a similar exhibition during November, 1833.

On this occasion from two o'clock till broad daylight, the sky being perfectly serene and cloudless, the whole heaven's were lighted with a magnificent and imposing display of celestial fireworks. Arago computes that no less than 240,000 meteors were visible above the horizon of Boston on the morning of the 13th of November, 1833. The display was seen all over North America. A similar display was seen by Humboldt, at Cumana, South America, in 1799. The comparison of the epochs of appearances of these great showers has led to the discovery that they are periodical, their returns being separated from each other by the third part of a century, or multiple of this period, and are periodical appearances of one grand meteoric shower. Professor Newton, of Yale College, who has devoted much time to the investigation of the periodic character of these showers, finds that the next return of this flight will be on the night of the 13th or 14th of November.

WONDERFUL VARIETY.—Every body should visit the Hardware Store of Hartley and Metzger to see the astonishing collection of goods therein displayed. It would more than fill our columns to name each article. Such a mass of useful ornamental and elegant products of skill and ingenuity was never before seen in Bedford. It is almost equal to a "Mechanics Fair." Besides the goods usually kept in Hardware store, of which they have an immense stock, such as iron, nails, paints, oils, Builders Hardware &c., you will see robes of dark, rich, Indian Robes, Ladies' Fancy Boxes, Satchels, Purses, Sleigh Baskets, Sleigh Runners and Robes, fancy Chains for children, Little Wagons, Sleds and Carts, bushels of Sleigh Bells, Skates for all the boys and girls in town, stacks of those wonderful "Lightning meat cutters," (which by the way are the best Sausage meat cutters ever invented.) There, too, is a clatter of oil lamps, beautiful shades, and (speaking of lamps) their brand of Coal Oil is really very superior and always the same. Our citizens and the public generally should not fail to visit Hartley & Metzger's store as it is certainly a credit to the town. Their terms are "cheap for cash." They are trying to break down the old ruinous "credit system" by making people pay for it. Hope all our merchants will do the same, then honest men will not have to pay for what is lost on others.

ADVANCE PAYMENTS.—We notice several of our exchanges, come to us with notices that hereafter their terms will be advance payments for subscriptions and cash for advertisements at the time of insertion. We do not wonder at this. It has become a necessity. Every thing used in the printing line is about as high in price as at any previous time during the war and has to be paid for in cash. Printers must have an extraordinary good establishment or a big purse to carry on business any length of time, paying their current expenses in cash and waiting for their own pay one, two three or more years. That kind of business don't pay. As a necessity then advance and cash payments for subscription and advertising will soon have to become general. Printers are entitled to their pay as well as other people.

SIGNS OF A SEVERE WINTER.—From all quarters we hear of phenomena which are generaly regarded as passages of a severe winter. Hives overflowing with honey; unusually thickness of corn husks, and the furs of wild beasts; the migration of rats from the West to the South; and as the season advances, we suppose there will be added to this list of signs, the extraordinary stores of nuts laid up by squirrels. However much we may be disposed to smile at such omens, and leave them to the credence of the ignorant, in view of the venerable antiquity of the faith reposed in them they are in some degree respectable, and it would be well for even the most incredulous to be prepared for a severe winter.

INSTALLATION.—The Rev. E. V. C. Schenck, Pastor elect of the Presbyterian Church of this place, will (D. V.) be installed, on Sunday, the 18th inst., by a committee of the Carlisle Presb'y. Services to commence at 11 o'clock, A. M. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered in the afternoon of the same day.

THE ADDITIONAL BOUNTY.—In cases where the additional bounty, provided by the act of July 28th, 1866, is claimed by the widow of a deceased soldier she having remarried, it has been decided by the Second Comptroller of the Treasury, that if the remarriage took place before the passage of the act, she is not entitled to receive it. If remarried after the passage of the act, then the widow would be entitled to the bounty.

The Second Comptroller of the Treasury has decided that the war ended on the 20th of August, 1866. Soldiers therefore, who enlisted for three years or during the war, and were discharged since then, will be entitled to bounty as three year soldiers.

MRS. PARTINGDON ON FASHION.—There is one thing sure, said Mrs. Partingdon, the females of the present regeneration are a heap more independent than they used to be. Why I saw a gal go by to-day that I know belongs to the historical class of society, with her dress all tucked up to her knee, her hair all buzzled up like as if she hadn't had time to comb for a week, and one of her grandmother's caps, in an awful crumpled condition, on her head. Why laws, honey, when I was a gal, if any of the fellows come along when I had my clothes tucked up that way, and my head kivered with an old white rag, I would run for dear life, and hide out of sight. Well, well, the gals then were innocent, unconfiscated creatures; now they are what the French call "blazes."

WRITTEN NOTICES.—We notice occasionally a written "Notice" stuck up in some obscure corner, as if the author is ashamed to post it in a more conspicuous place. Any man who writes his notices for a public sale, or things of that kind and gives economy for a reason, shows a sad deficiency of knowledge. He is "penny wise and pound foolish," as nobody but old fogies will stop to read written hand-bills now-a-days. If a man has anything to sell and expects to get its value, he must let it be known, and Printer's Ink is the only medium. Hand bills neatly executed at the GAZETTE office.

HANGMAN'S DAY.—Governor CURTIN, has put an end to the superstitious practice too prevalent in this country, of ordering public executions to be made on Friday, which day of the week is therefore kept in bad repute, as "Hang man's Day." A short time ago he ordered a criminal to be executed on some other day, Monday, if we are not mistaken. He has just issued another death warrant for an execution in Lycoming county, naming Tuesday as the day for the completion of the sentence. If the Governors of other States would combine to discountenance the peculiar practice of choosing Fridays for executions, in a few years the ancient superstitions which assigns bad luck to that day, would be altogether forgotten.

POISONOUS GASES FROM OIL LAMPS.—Many persons who use kerosene or coal oil lamps are in the habit, when going to bed or leaving a room for a short time, of turning the wick down low, in order to save a trifle of the consumption of oil. The consequence is that the air of the room soon becomes vitiated by the unconsumed oil vapors, by the gas produced by combustion, and also by the minute particles of smoke and soot which are thrown off. Air thus poisoned is deadly in its effects, and the wonder is that more persons are not immediately and fatally injured by breathing it. Irritation and inflamation of the throat and lungs, headache, dizziness and nausea are among its effects.

A HAPPY SIGHT.—The "local" of the Lynchburg News thus describes a happy sight which he witnessed on Monday in that city: "We saw a woman yesterday from the country, promenading Bridge street, underneath a new spoon-bowl hat decked with a rooster feather, inside of a tilting 'skeert, before a huge water fall, having in her mouth a corn-cob pipe, and her arms a baby about two months old. She looked like she felt she was in Mahomet's Seventh Heaven, and was ready to exclaim 'cut my straps and let me go to glory.' She was a curiosity."

THE WEIGHT OF SHEEP.—A rule prevalent in England for ascertaining the weight of each dressed quarter will be one-seventh of the live weight of the entire sheep; that is, if a live sheep weighs 140 pounds, the dressed carcase will weigh 80 pounds. This rule is said to be tolerably accurate for sheep in fair order and not very fat.

ON next Sabbath, at 10½ o'clock, A. M., Rev. A. R. Miller will commence, in the M. E. Church in this place, a series of sermons on the "Centenary of Methodism." The subject for Sabbath will be, The Origin and Primitive Features of Methodism.

A REVIVAL of religion has been in progress in the M. E. Church, in this place, during the past month. Up to this time some thirty souls have been converted to God, and others are still inquiring, "What must we do to be saved."

GOOD FOR OYSTERS.—By a recent decision of the Treasury Department, oysters and other shell fish, placed in cans in a raw state for the purpose of transportation, are not liable to a revenue tax.

DEATH OF AN AGED MINISTER.—Philadelphia papers record the death of Rev. Samuel Helfenstein, Sr., in the 92d year of his age. He was the oldest minister of the German Reformed church in the United States.

OUR SCHOOLDAY VISITOR.—ENLARGEMENT.—That very popular young people's Magazine, "Clark's School Visitor," will be enlarged to double its present size, and otherwise materially improved with the beginning of the next volume in January. Its name then will also be changed to "Our Schoolday Visitor," a title, we think, more unique and beautiful. The Visitor is now about entering upon the eleventh year of its publication, and has richly merited the very liberal patronage it has everywhere received. Its contents are varied and interesting, containing just what our young people desire and demand—original first-class Stories, Sketches of Travel, Spicy Dialogues, excellent Music, Biographies of Great Men, Letters, Problems, Rebusses, Puzzles, &c. Among its contributors for the coming year are some of the most eminent American writers and educators; and its pages will be embellished each month with original designs by our most cultivated artists. In short, we can expect a Journal as elevating in tone and elegant in appearance, as American talent and skill can produce. A department is especially set apart for the "Little Folks," and will be devoted and adapted to their years and interests. We bespeak for the new volume a glorious career, working and winning its way into the hearts of our young people everywhere. Now is the time to form clubs. Terms $1.25 a year. To clubs, $1.00, with handsome premiums. Specimen numbers, ten cents. Every new subscriber for 1867 whose name is sent in before the first of next December, will get the November and December numbers of this year free. Address J. W. DAUGHADAY, Publisher, 1398 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa.

ADVICE GRATIS.—If you would learn the secret of beauty, use "Bloom of Youth." If you would have teeth like pearl, use "Zozodont." If you would have your hair beautiful and luxuriant, use the "U-X-Esis." All these preparations to be had at Lewis' Drug Store, in connection with toilet articles, &c., &c., a large assortment having just been received.

REVIEW OF THE MARKETS.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6.

FLOUR.—The market was more active to-day, and some holders ask a further advance. About 2,000 bbls sold to the home trade, including—

Northwest superfine,	$7.50@8.50
Northwest extra,	8.75@10.50
Northwest extra family,	13.00@14.25
Penna. and West'n superfine,	8.00@9.00
Penna. and West'n extra,	9.50@12.00

GRAIN.—There is a steady demand for wheat at full prices, but the absence of supplies restricts operations. Sales of fair and choice Pennsylvania and Southern red were made at $3@3.33. White may be quoted at $3.25@3.40.

Rye is in fair request, and commands $1.40 per bus. for Western.

Corn is scarce and Prices are 5c per bus higher; sales of 6,500 bus yellow at $1.25, and 500 bus Western mixed at $1.24.

Oats are also higher; sales of 7,500 bus Southern at 67c, and Pennsylvania at 70c per bus.

PROVISIONS.—Prices are well maintained, but the market continues inactive; small sales are making at $35 per bbl for new mess pork; 20@25c per lb for plain and fancy bacon hams, 19@20c for pickled do; 15½c for salt shoulders; 16½@17c for prime lard in bbls and tes; and 20 @32c per lb for butter as to quality.

SEEDS.—Cloverseed continues scarce; sales of prime are making at $8@9 per bus. for old and new; timothy ranges at from $3.25@3.50, and flaxseed at $3.20@3.25 per bus.

MARRIED.

BAUGHMAN—HINER.—In Schellsburg, on the 23d of Sept., by Peter Dewalt, Esq., Mr. John A. Baughman and Miss M. E Hiner, both of Napier township, this county.

DIED.

DASHER—At Bedford Forge, Hopewell township, on Friday, the 19th ult., John Dasher, aged 53 years, 10 months and 25 days.

GARDNER.—On the 3d inst., aged nineteen years, Agnes Gardner, of this borough. She had been, for months, the meek and resigned sufferer of a lingering illness, which terminated in consumption, to which, at last, she fell a premature victim, being mowed down by death in the bloom of life. She has left behind her, after so brief a career, a beautiful record, as a loving, obedient child, an affectionate sister, and a truly pious christian, which must console her bereaved parents, with regard to her untimely death, which indeed, is their great loss, but her eternal gain. The immense throng that conducted her remains to their last resting place, evidenced the great sympathy of this community in her regard. "She pleased God and was beloved. She was taken away lest wickedness should alter her understanding or deceit beguile her soul,"—Wisdom, ch. 4th.

REDUCTION IN PRICE OF THE
AMERICAN WATCHES,
MADE AT WALTHAM, MASS.

In consequence of the recent great improvements in our manufacturing facilities, we have reduced our prices to as low a point as they can be placed WITH GOLD AT PAR, so that no one need hesitate to buy a watch now from the expectation that it will be cheaper at some future time. The test of ten years, and the manufacture and sale of

have given our productions the very highest rank among time keepers. Commencing with the determination to make only thoroughly excellent watches, our business has steadily increased as the public became acquainted with their value, until for months together, we have been unable to supply the demand. We have repeatedly enlarged our factory buildings until they now cover over three acres of ground, and give accommodation to more than eight hundred workmen. We are fully justified in saying that we now make more than sold in the United States. The different grades are distinguished by the following trade-marks on the plate:

1. "American Watch Co." Waltham, Mass.
2. "Appleton, Tracy & Co." Waltham, Mass.
3. "P. S. Bartlett," Waltham, Mass.
4. "Wm. Ellery."
5. Our LADIES' WATCH of first quality is named "Appleton, Tracy & Co." Waltham, Mass.
6. Our next quality of Ladies' Watch is named "P. S. Bartlett," Waltham, Mass. These watches are furnished in a great variety of sizes and styles of cases.

The AMERICAN WATCH Co. of Waltham, Mass., authorize us to state that without distinction of trade-marks or price, ALL the products of their Factory are FULLY WARRANTED to be the best time-keepers of their class ever made in this or any other country. Buyers should remember that unlike the guarantee of a foreign maker who can never be reached, this guarantee is good at all times against the Company or their agents, and that if after the most thorough trial, any watch should prove defective in any particular, it may be always exchanged for another. As the American Watches made at Waltham, are for sale by dealers generally throughout the country, we do not solicit orders for single Watches.

CAUTION.—The public are cautioned to buy only of respectable dealers. All persons selling counterfeits will be prosecuted.

MISHLER'S BITTERS WILL CURE ALL DISEASES OF THE SKIN!

Diseases of the skin are numerous and, with but one or two exceptions, may all be traced to impurity of the blood. In many persons this impurity is born in the system; while others acquire it through improper treatment of scores of diseases. Under this head may be classed—

1st, Scrofula,—This disease is hereditary and is transmitted from generation to generation It is caused by a transgression of the laws of nature, both moral and physical; in other words, it is caused by vice. Acting as a latent poison, it reduces the vitality of the blood, and weakens the depurating organs, so that they fail to discharge or cast out the impurities that are continually generating in the system. A person physically pure acquires gonorhœa, or some other secret disease; he undergoes a course of mercury, the disease is dried up, and the patient pronounced well. Vain delusion. The complaint is not cured, its channel is only diverted. Instead of making its appearance outwardly, it acts on the internal organs, and scrofula, which is bequeathed from father to son, is the result. Many persons who are perfectly free from all immorality and vice are afflicted with scrofula. They are suffering for the sins of their fathers and laboring under the curse inscribed inscribed in the Book of Books. "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

To cure this dreadful complaint it is necessary that the blood should be thoroughly purified, all the organs of the body brought into a healthy state of action, and the system braced up and strengthened by invigorating tonics. Look at the articles used in compounding Mishler's Bitters; see the array of purifying and invigorating medicaments, and say whether there is an article in the whole list of medicines that equals it. We here emphatically assert, without fear of contradiction, that Mishler's Bitters will Cure all kinds of Scrofulous Diseases.

It purifies the blood, it strengthens the internal organs and aids them to perform their natural functions, it is a stimulant and a tonic and it will cure Scrofula.

2d, Running Sores and Ulcers.—Running sores and ulcers invariably indicate a scrofulous taint. They are caused by the efforts of nature to discharge the impurities of the blood. Many persons afflicted with running sores and ulcers succeeded in drying them up and think they are cured when the skin grows over the sore. They are, however, "but making bad worse," for the impurities that were discharged from the system through the medium of the sore now act internally and cause innumerable diseases and often death. The only true and sure cure for all running sores and ulcers is Mishler's Bitters, a continued and persevering use of which will most certainly effect a permanent cure.

3d. Salt Rheum.—Salt Rheum is a vague, indefinite, though, popular term given to almost all the non-febrile eruptions of the skin which afflict adults. It is generally an eruption of vesicles in small, distinct ulcers, accompanied with a smarting, tingling sensation, with a tendency to creep or spread over the adjoining surface. Mishler's bitters are a sure cure for this disease.

4th. Pimples and Blotches.—Pimples and Blotches on the skin are always a sure sign of impure blood. Although never dangerous, except in cases of carbuncles, they are very disagreeable.—Often we will see the most handsome features rendered hideous by great blotches and pimples, and instead of the pleasing look which should irradiate the human face we see nothing but disgusting corruption; for pimples and blotches are nothing but the corrupt accumulations of the system expelled through the medium of the skin. The use of Mishler's Bitters will force these corruptions to be discharged through the natural channels, and thus cures all kinds of pimples and blotches. Ladies who desire a fair complection, free from pimples should bear this fact in mind.

J. W. BRADLEY'S
CELEBRATED PATENT
DUPLEX ELLIPTIC (OR DOUBLE SPRING)
SKIRT.

The wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any lady wearing the DUPLEX ELLIPTIC SKIRT will be experienced particularly in crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm Chairs, for Promenade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a silk or muslin dress, an invaluable quality in crinoline, not found in any single spring Skirt.

A lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort, and great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day, will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all others.

They will not bend or break like the single spring, but will preserve their perfect and graceful shape when three or four ordinary Skirts will have been thrown aside as useless. The Hoops are covered with double and twisted thread, and the bottom rods are not only double springs, but twice (or double) covered: preventing them from wearing out when dragging down stoops, stairs, &c.

The Duplex Elliptic is a great favorite with all ladies and is universally recommended by the Fashion Magazines as the STANDARD SKIRT of the Fashionable World!

To enjoy the following inestimable advantages in crinoline, viz. superior quality, perfect manufacture, stylish shape and finish, flexibility, durability, comfort and economy, inquire for

J. W. BRADLEY'S DUPLEX ELLIPTIC, or Double Spring Skirt, and be sure you get the genuine article.

CAUTION —To guard against imposition, be particular to notice that Skirts offered as "DUPLEX" have the red ink stamp, viz: "J W. Bradley's Duplex Elliptic Steel Springs," upon the waistband—☞none others are genuine. Also notice that every Hoop will admit a pin being passed through the centre, thus revealing the two (or double) springs braided together therein, which is the secret of their flexibility and strength, and a combination not to be found in any other Skirt.

For sale in all stores where first class Skirts are sold throughout the United States and elsewhere. Manufactured by the sole owners of the patent,

ECLECTIC MAGAZINE.—LITERATURE, SCIENCE AND ART.—New Volume begins January, 1866.

The ECLECTIC MAGAZINE is, as its name indicates, a selection from other magazines and periodicals. These selections are carefully made each month, from the entire range of foreign Periodicals. In this respect it is entirely unlike other monthlies, and has no rival. The following are some of the works from which selections are made:—

London Quarterly,	Revue de deux Mondes,
British Quarterly,	London Society,
North British Review,	Bentley's Miscellany,
Pop. Science Review,	Cornhill Magazine,
Saturday Review,	Fraser's Magazine,
Leisure Hour,	Temple Bar,
Westminster Review,	Chambers' Journal,
Dub. University Magazine,	Edinburg Review,
Art Journal,	London National Rev.

We have also arranged to secure choice selections from the FRENCH, GERMAN AND OTHER CONTINENTAL PERIODICALS, translated especially for the ECLECTIC, and it is hoped this new feature will add greatly to the variety and value of the work.

EMBELLISHMENTS.

Each number is embellished with one or more Fine Steel Engravings—portraits of eminent men or illustrative of important events.

Volumes commence in January and July of each year; subscriptions can commence with any month.

TERMS: $5 per year; Single numbers, 50 cents. Five copies, $20.

The interest of these Periodicals to American readers is rather increased than diminished by the articles they contain on our late Civil War, and though sometimes tinged with prejudice, they may still, considering their great ability and the different stand points from which they are written, be read and studied with advantage by the people of this country, of every creed and party.

Premiums to New Subscribers.

New Subscribers to any two of the above periodicals for 1866 will be entitled to receive, gratis, any one of the "Four Reviews" for 1865. New Subscribers to all five of the Periodcals for 1866, will receive gratis, any two of the "Four Reviews" for 1865.

Subscribers may also obtain back numbers at the following reduced rates, viz:

Blackwood from September, 1864, to December, 1865, inclusive, at the rate of $2.50 a year.

The North British from January, 1863, to December, 1865, inclusive; the Edinburgh and the Westminster from April, 1864, to December, 1865, inclusive, and the London Quarterly for the year 1865, at the rate of $1.50 a year for each or any Review.

This will insure promptness in the reception of the January number. In remitting please state the fact that the subscription is a renewal.

ON SATURDAY, JANUARY 6, 1866, Messrs. TICKNOR & FIELDS began the publication of a weekly journal entitled

EVERY SATURDAY:
A JOURNAL OF CHOICE READING,
SELECTED FROM FOREIGN CURRENT LITERATURE.

Much of the best literature of the day is found in the English and Continental magazines and periodicals; and it is the design of the Publishers of this new journal to reproduce the choicest selections from these for American readers, in a form at once attractive and inexpensive. The publishers believe that such a journal, conducted upon the plan which they propose, will be not only entertaining and instructive in itself, but interesting and valuable as a reflex of foreign periodical literature of the better class.

EVERY SATURDAY is intended for town and country, for the fireside, the seaside, the railway and the steamboat. Its plan embraces Incidents of Travel and Adventure, Essays Critical and Descriptive, Serial Tales, Short Stories, Poems, Biographies, Literary Intelligence, etc., in connection with judicious selections from the admirable popular papers on science which are constantly appearing in foreign periodicals. The value of these papers arises from the fact that scientific subjects, however harsh and dry in themselves, are here treated in so graphic and picturesque a style as to charm the reader while instructing him.

It will be, in short, the aim of its publishers that EVERY SATURDAY shall commend itself by its freshness and variety to all classes of intelligent and cultivated readers.

EVERY SATURDAY will contain each week thirty-two large octavo pages, handsomely printed in double columns, with an engraved title.

TERMS.

Single Numbers, 10 cents.
Subscription price $5.00 per year, in advance.

MONTHLY PARTS will be issued, containing 128 pages each, handsomely bound in an attractive cover, price 50 cents. Subscription price, $5.00 per year, in advance.

CLUBBING ARRANGEMENT.—Subscribers to any of the other periodicals published by TICKNOR AND FIELDS will receive EVERY SATURDAY for $4.00 per year in advance.

TICKNOR & FIELDS, Publishers,
124 Tremont Street, Boston.

NOTICE TO THE PRESS.—EVERY SATURDAY will be furnished to the press, for clubbing, at $3.50 per year; and any paper copying this prospectus, with editorial notices, will be entitled to an exchange.

1866! PROSPECTUS 1866!
OF "THE AGE,"
The only Democratic Daily Journal in Philadphia.—Great Improvements and Great Inducements.—Union, Restoration, and Constitutional Liberty.

The publishers of THE AGE respectfully call attention to the Daily and Weekly issues of their popular journal.

The Daily Age contains the latest intelligence from all parts of the world, with articles on Government, Politics, Trade, Finance, and all the current questions of the day; Local Intelligence, Market Reports, Prices Current, Stock Quotations, Marine and Commercial intelligence, Reports of Public Gatherings, Foreign and Domestic Correspondence, Legal Reports, Book Notices, Theatrical Criticisms, Reviews of Literature, Art and Music, Agricultural Matters; and discussions of whatever subjects are of general interest and importance.—Besides special telegrams, it has all the dispatches of the Associated Press from every part of the United States, and the news from all parts of Europe, brought by the steamers, is instantly telegraphed from the point the steamers first touch

Terms of the Daily.—One copy, one year, $9.00; six months, $4 50; three months, $2.50; for any less period, at the rate of one dollar per month. Payment required invariably in advance. Postage on the Daily, thirty cents per quarter, or one dollar and twenty cents per annum, if prepaid.

The Weekly Age will be a complete compendium of the news of the week, and besides the leading editorials from the Daily, will contain a large amount of interesting matter prepared expressly for the weekly issue. It will be in all respects a first class family journal, particularly adapted to the Politician, the Farmer, the Merchant, the Mechanic, the Family Circle and the General Reader, having, in fact, every characteristic of a live newspaper. At an early day will be begun an intensely interesting serial, by one of the most popular and fascinating authors, and it is also the intention to publish, from week to week, in the course of the year, three or four of the best and latest novels.

Terms of the Weekly.—One copy, one year, $2; five copies, one year, $9; ten copies, one year, $17.-50; twenty copies, one year, $33. To clubs, where the papers are sent to one address, the following reduction will be made: Ten copies, one year, $16.50; twenty copies, one year, $30. A copy will be furnished gratis for each of ten, or more, to one address, for one year. Payment required invariably in advance. Postage on the Weekly, five cts per quarter, or twenty cents per annum, it prepaid.

☞The Weekly Age will be the great campaign paper of the Democratic Conservative Party of Pennsylvania, and will earnestly support the President in his patriotic efforts in behalf of Union, Restoration and Constitutional Liberty.

☞The above terms will be rigidly adhered to. Specimen copies of the Daily and Weekly sent gratis, on application at this office. Please write the name and address plainly, and specify distinctly whether the Daily or Weekly is ordered.

THE NEW YORK NEWS,
The only Recognized Democratic Newspaper published in New York,
DAILY, SEMI-WEEKLY, AND WEEKLY.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE NEW YORK NEWS has battled against despotism for four years of blood and terror in assertion of the sanctity of the Constitution. A patriotism sufficiently broad to embrace both sections has been its only guide, and it refers now with honest pride to its record to show that it has not turned to the right or the left under all the violence of arbitrary power.

True to its principles as THE NEWS has been through the reign of terror, it challenges public confidence in its honesty and independence for the future.

The political transition of the present day opens to THE NEWS a new and wider field of usefulness. Standing now as it always has, on the inviolability of the Constitution, according to the interpretation of the strict constructionists, it presents a rallying ground for all, in both sections, who are friends of a generous conservatism. As a true and tried exponent of sectional amity it occupies a position which makes it the fitting mediator in holding up to the party of order in both sections, interests and principles that gave breadth and vitality to their alliance. As an intersectional agent, devoted to freedom of election, to trial by jury, to the sanctity of the habeas corpus, and opposed now, as for four years of terror it has been, to the centralization that dares to trample on the rights of States, North or South, THE NEWS places itself as a candidate for support before the great body of this once free people.

The circumstances of the moment make the dissemination of the principles of THE NEWS a duty of individual patriotism. Every man who concurs in its doctrines must if he entertain a true sense of freedom, do so in no spirit of indifference, but rather with the earnestness of a high trust. Justified, nay bound in his love of liberty to do so, the proprietor places the canvass he makes here of the public generally in the hands of those men who give him the approval of their consciences as his individual agents. Every reader of the THE NEWS cannot avoid the conviction of duty which is here pointed out as the ground of the request, that he urges his claims for a wider support upon all of his friends and neighbors who give their earnest sympathies to the cause of "strict construction," intersectional conciliation, and all the rights of the citizen under the system set up by our fathers of liberty regulated by law. The proprietor of THE NEWS calls, therefore, upon true and good conservatives throughout the country to discharge, to their convictions of political right at this great crisi in the country's fortunes, the duty of giving to the influence of his paper, daily, semi-weekly, or weekly, the wider power for good which it seeks here through the service of its individual supporters.

The only known remedy for

DIABETES,

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, CATARRH OF THE BLADDER, STRANGURY OR PAINFUL URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms.

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back and through the hips? A teaspoonful a day of Helmbold's Buchu will relieve you.

PHYSICIANS AND OTHERS

PLEASE NOTICE.

I make no secret of ingredients. Helmbold's Extract Buchu is composed of Buchu, Cubebs, and Juniper Berries, selected with great care, prepared in vacuo and according to rules of

PHARMACY AND CHEMISTRY,

These ingredients are known as the most valuable Diuretics afforded.

A DIURETIC

Is that which acts upon the kidneys.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
ACTS GENTLY,

Is pleasant in taste and odor, free from all injurious properties, and immediate in its action.

FOR THE SATISFACTION OF ALL,

See Medical Properties contained in Dispensatory of the U. S., of which the following is a correct copy:

"BUCHU.—Its odor is strong, diffusive, and somewhat aromatic, its taste bitterish, and analogous to that of mint. It is given chiefly in complaints of the Urinary Organs, such as Gravel, chronic Catarrh of the Bladder, Morbid irritation of the Bladder and Urethra, Diseases of the Prostrate, and Retention or the Incontinence of Urine, from a loss of tone in the parts concerned in its evacuation. It has also been recommended in Dyspepsia, Chronic Rheumatism, Cutaneous Affections, and Dropsy."

MANUFACTURING CHEMIST IN THE WORLD.

I am acquainted with H. T. Helmbold; he occupied the drug store opposite my residence, and was successful in conducting the business where others had not been equally so before him. I have been favorably impressed with his character and enterprise.

WM. WEIGHTMAN,
(Firm of Powers & Weightman,)
Manufacturing Chemists,
Ninth and Brown Streets, Philadelphia.

[From the Philad'a Evening Bulletin, Mar.. 10.]

We are gratified to hear of the continued success, in New York, of our townsman, Mr. H. T. Helmbold, Druggist. His store, next to the Metropolitan Hotel, is 28 feet front, 230 feet deep, and five stories in height. It is certainly a grand establishment, and speaks favorably of the merit of his articles. He retains his Office and Laboratory in this city, which are also model establishments of their class.

The proprietor has been induced to make this statement from the fact that his remedies, although advertised, are

GENUINE PREPARATIONS,

And, knowing that the intelligent refrain from using any thing pertaining to Quackery, or the Patent Medicine order—most of which are prepared by self-styled Doctors, who are too ignorant to read a physician's simplest prescription, much less competent to prepare pharmaceutical preparations.

to various means of effecting sales, such as copying parts of advertisements of popular remedies, and finishing with certificates.

The Science of Mddicine stands SIMPLE, PURE, and MAJESTIC,—having Fact for its Basis, Induction for its Pillar, Truth alone for its Capital.

A WORD OF CAUTION.

Health is most important; and the afflicted should not use an advertised remedy, unless its contents or ingredients are known to others besides the manufacturer, or until they are satisfied of the qualifications of the party so offering.

This is no new remedy. It has been used for a number of years in Maryland and parts of Pennsylvania, and has, wherever known, acquired an unprecedented reputation for curing the various diseases for which it is recommended.

So apparent is its usefulness, and so remarkabl has been its cures, that it is fast superceding every other remedy for those diseases. The afflicted can rely upon its doing as much for them, and in many cases more than any other remedy now be ore the public.

It is recommended and prescribed in the practice of a large number of the most intelligent and able physicians of Maryland. It is used and considered an indispensable household remedy by a large portion of the first families of the State.

It is used by all classes of society, and the universal opinion is that it is good. This Syrup is Purely Vegetable Compound. It is pleasant to take, and never does injury. But owing to its purifying qualities, must do good under any circumstances. Its effects are truly wonderful, soothing, calming, and allaying the most violent coughs, purifying, strengthening and invigorating the wh
